

Constructed in a record time

Kusch+Co has furnished the international waiting areas at the Beijing Airport with its upmarket Airport Seating.

The construction of the new international Beijing Airport was completed in a record time of nearly four years. As scheduled, the airport was officially inaugurated in September 2019. With over 260 international airports on its reference list, Kusch+Co contributed to the airport's successful completion in its capacity as a global player in the field of airport seating.

The international waiting areas at the new Beijing Airport offer an exceptional experience to its passengers thanks to the new benches from Kusch+Co. This company, specialized in furnishing contract environments, delivered and installed 3,700 seat units of its upmarket bench series 8000 (Design by Studio F. A. Porsche) right on time. Kusch+Co is reputed to be a world-wide expert in the field of design-oriented, upmarket seating geared towards public environments

About Kusch+Co

In order to stay fit for the future, companies have to be able to adapt and reinvent themselves over and over again – this credo also applies to Kusch+Co. Since January 2019, this formerly family-owned business in the third generation is part of the Nowy Styl Group. They develop individual seating and interior design solutions geared towards future-oriented contract environments. They live and breathe high quality and a passion for design. Through its revamped portfolio, Kusch+Co not only reacts to the changes of the modern working world, but also to the new standards in the healthcare industry and to the current requirements in airports and transit sites. The co-operation with upcoming and renowned designers is an integral part of the corporate culture at Kusch+Co, and forms the bedrock of their expanding portfolio, which comprises several award-winning series.
